150 WORDS

Tali Wiru, meaning 'beautiful dune' in local Anangu language, encapsulates the magic of fine dining under the Southern Desert sky. Instead of walls, this open-air restaurant has magnificent views of Uluru and the distant domes of Kata Tjuta, and for unique ambience there's the stillness of the desert at night.

Relax with champagne and canapés while you watch the sun set. As day turns to night, stroll to the top of the dune for a table d'hôte four-course dinner, with each dish carefully paired with premium Australian wine.

The contrast between the spectacular natural setting and the world-class gastronomic adventure on your plate is simply awe-inspiring.

After dinner, an Indigenous storyteller and star talker will uncover the secrets of the Southern Desert skies, and you will learn about the Traditional Owners of these lands, the Anangu.
